

AUDITING

With sense and sensibility. Auditing annual and consolidated financial statements.

You and your company are at the centre of our audit approach. In addition to the obligatory audit of the correctness of the accounting and the financial statements, we identify existing risks and potentials as a basis for the further development of your company.

The suitability and reliability of business processes and risk control measures become transparent for you. Within the framework of our consistently risk-oriented audit approach, we thus ensure that the audit of the financial statements generates additional benefits for your company beyond the legally required audit opinion and supports the sustainable positive development of your company.

The basis for our audit services is a highly demanding quality assurance system that complies with professional requirements in all respects.
